Naples, February 27.

ON the 6th the Duke di Caſtropignano ſet out from hence for the Eccleſiaſtical State, to take upon him the Command of the King's Troops. The Duke Sforza Ceſariné, after having taken Place and covered before the King, as Grandee of Spain, ſet out from hence on his Return to Rome. The Court has fixed its Departure hence for the Villa of Portici to the 2d of March. Laſt Week the King made a Promotion of General Officers, amongſt whom Don Nicholas de Sangro has been appointed Captain General of his Forces in this Kingdom, in the room of the Duke di Caſtropignano, who commands the Army in the Eccleſiaſtical State. The Convoy of 24 Tranſports, eſcorted by the Ships of War St. Phillip and Parthenope, ſailed from Meſſina on the 13th Inſtant, on their Voyage to the Adriatick Sea, there to land the Artillery, Ammunition and Military Stores for the Expedition to Lombardy.

Rome, March 3. On the 10th of laſt Month, a Wooden Bridge was ordered to be built over the Tiber at Monte Rotondo, for the Paſſage of four Companies of Gunners from Naples and Gaeta, one Hundred of which on the 14th paſſed near the Walls of this City on their March to join the Neapolitan and Spaniſh Army. Baron Scarlatti, the Bavarian Miniſter, has preſented to the Pope a Letter of Notification from his Maſter, of his Election to the Imperial Throne. On the 23d the Baron received his Credentials as Envoy Extraordinary, and accordingly had an Audience of the Pope, and has put over the Door of his Palace, the Arms of the new Emperor. M. Thun has demanded of the Pope, the Paſſage through the Eccleſiaſtical State for a Body of 25000 Auſtrian Troops, but from what Part they are expected is not as yet known. A Party of 30 Auſtrian Huſſars has made an Incurſion as far as Faenza, to diſcover the Motions of the Spaniards, who are keeping themſelves in Guard to prevent a Surprize. The Spaniſh and Neapolitan Troops continue their March very ſlowly through this State; the greateſt Part of them are at Peſaro, which it ſeems they deſign as a Place of Arms. A Tumult has lately happened at Spoleti, between the Inhabitants and the Spaniards on Account of Deſerters, which the latter pretend the Inhabitants had aſſiſted, in which 24 Spaniards and ſome of the Inhabitants were killed. An Edict was lately publiſhed on the Part of the Government, impoſing heavy Penalties on ſuch Perſons as ſhall talk diſreſpectfully of the Powers at War. On the 21ſt died Cardinal Coiro, by which the Fourteenth Cardinal's Hat is become vacant. M. Thun, the Queen of Hungary's Miniſter, has lately preſented a Memorial to the Secretary of State, to prevent the Acknowledgement of the new Emperor: The Pope has, notwithſtanding, in a Conſiſtory which he held on the 28th paſt, acknowledged that Prince, and cauſed the uſual Functions on ſuch an Occaſion to be performed; on which the Palaces of the Cardinals, Miniſters and Roman Barons were illuminated for two Evenings ſucceſſively, thoſe of Cardinal del Giudice, M. Thun, M. Franchini, Prince of Santa Croce, and Bracciano excepted. It is confirm'd, that Cardinal Borgheſe is to have the Protectorſhip of the Empire, in which caſe Prince Borgheſe will accept the Embaſſy of the Empire. The Spaniſh Troops are advanced no farther than Rimini, whither the Artillery from Naples was to be tranſported from Ancona, and as the Spaniſh Engineers had meaſured the Walls of that Place, and obſerved the Country about it, it is thought, that they deſign to remain there for ſome Time.

Turin, March 7, N. S. The Preparations for the Campaign are carrying on with the utmoſt Diligence. The King of Sardinia's Troops, to the Number of 22 Battalions and 18 Squadrons of Horſe, were ordered to begin their March as Yeſterday, and to advance into the Paveſan, the Plaiſantine, and the Dutchy of Parma, with the neceſſary Train of Field Artillery, Ammunition, and Stores, where they are to be poſted in ſuch a Manner as to be united in a Body in twice 24 Hours if requiſite, in order to march to the Enemy, and back the Hungarian Troops in the Modeneſe. The General Officers are all named, and are already ſet out, or on the Point of ſetting out for the Army; and it is not queſtioned but between the 15th and 20th Inſtant the King of Sardinia will leave Turin, and put himſelf at the Head of his Troops. Yeſder Prince Mansfelt paſſed through this Town in his Way to Rome, whither he is going with the Character of the Emperor's Ambaſſador to the Pope.

Florence, March 11. In Conſequence of the Orders ſent by M. de Montemar to the Marqueſs de Caſtellar, to change the Rout, and to proceed by Valdarno to Arezzo, Borgo, St. Sepolero, &c. into the Romagna, inſtead of going to Bologna (as it was ſtipulated at Peſaro between M. de Montemar and M. Velluti, the Tuſcan Commiſſary) in order to join thoſe under his Command, and the Neapolitan Troops by a ſhorter Paſſage through Furlo and Urbino in the Eccleſiaſtical State, on the 5th Inſtant, the ſaid Column paſſed under the Walls of Florence, as did on the 7th the ſecond, and on the 9th the third Column, all Foot, conducting each of them their Field Baggage, their ſmall Braſs Field Cannon, and a ſuitable Quantity of Ammunition and military Stores, and were followed this Day by the fourth Column, amounting hitherto in all to about 11000. They have paid in ready Money for the Proviſions and other Neceſſaries they have had Occaſion for, and obſerved hitherto a good Diſcipline: Many of the Nobility and Inhabitants of Florence were to ſee the Paſſage of theſe Troops without occaſioning any Diſorder or Tumult,

[Price Two-pence.]

Tumult, contrary to what happened at Piſa, and which the Government were ſo apprehenſive of on the Part of the People, that the few Cannon that are left in the two Caſtles were charged and pointed againſt the Town, except the firſt Day the two Gates of the Town which by they paſſed were ſhut when they came within Sight of them. M. de Caſtellar, who commanded the firſt Column, on Notice that a large Party of his Men had at once deſerted, at the Inſtigation, as he pretends, of ſome of the Great Duke's Officers, and that they were in one of the Caſtles at Florence, wrote a very ſtrong Letter to the Spaniſh Agent to bid him demand them, and to threaten the Government, that unleſs they were delivered up, he would leave a ſtrong Body of Troops at all the Avenues of Florence, to prevent the like Inconvenience for the future. The Spaniſh Agent ſent Marqueſs Caſtellar's original Letter to Prince Craon, accompanied with one much ſtronger from himſelf. The Regency refuſed however on this arbitrary Demand to give them up, but immediately ſent an Officer to M. de Caſtellar to make ſome Sort of reciprocal Agreement with him on this Head.

Genoa, March 14. Letters from Madrid of the 27th paſt mention the Departure of Don Philip, after having, as is therein ſaid, received the Inveſtiture of the Dutchies of Milan, Parma and Placentia, from the new Emperor.

Vienna, March 14. By a Letter from Budeweiſs of the 12th Inſtant, we are informed that the French had found Means to throw a Reinforcement into the Caſtle of Frauenberg, which lies upon the Mulda, between Budeweiſs and Piſeck, and had been reduced to the laſt Extremity for Want of Proviſions, and by Sickneſs, ſo that we were in hourly Expectation of its Surrender. This was effected by a Detachment of about 2000 Foot and 1200 Horſe, which they ſent on the 9th Inſtant, under the Command of the Duke de Bouflers, the Duke de Briſac, and the Chevalier de Broglio, who marched all Night, diſlodg'd a Party of Huſſars at Potewin, ſurprized the little Town of Wodnian in their Way, where they made 130 Priſoners, exchanged the Garriſon of Frauenberg, and put a ſufficient Quantity of Proviſions and Ammunition into it, and then returned to Piſeck, having again abandoned Wodnian. The French were obliged to paſs and repaſs almoſt through the Middle of the Auſtrian Quarters for this Expedition. It is the Situation upon the River which makes the Caſtle of Frauenberg of any Importance, as hindring the immediate Communication by Water between Budeweiſs and Tayn. The Sickneſs is general in Bohemia, not only amongſt the Soldiers of both Armies, but amongſt the Peaſants, and even the better Sort of People, who are in equal Want of all Neceſſaries. Prince Lobkowitz is arrived at Waithoven, where the main Body is aſſembling in order to enter into Moravia. Four Deſerters from General St. Ignon's Avant Guard at Waithoven having been examined, as is ſaid, for above an Hour, by the King of Pruſſia at Znaim, his Pruſſian Majeſty has retired from thence to Iritz, and left the Town to be poſſeſſed by the Saxons. We are in daily Expectation of ſome important Accounts from Marſhal Khevenhuller, who has extended himſelf beyond the Leck. There is hardly a Day now but we have ſome Troops paſſing through this Town, or in the Neighbourhood from Hungary. There is a Report as if Count Rudolph Palfi had deſtroyed another Body of 800 Bavarians near Ingolſtadt, ſaid to be the Regiment of Freiſingen.

Berlin, March 20. By Advices from Upper Sileſia there is an Account, That on the 10th Inſtant in the Night, a conſiderable Number of the Auſtrian Huſſars broke into the Suburbs of Olmutz, which they plundered during the Space of two Hours, till the Garriſon of the Town beat to Arms; after which they retired to about a Mile Diſtance, where they joined another Body of Huſſars of about 600. They have done a great Deal of Miſchief at Olmutz, and among other Things, they have carried off 70 Artillery Horſes, two or three Officers, a great deal of Baggage, ſome of the King of Pruſſia's Domeſticks, and his head Groom, with 18 of his Mules, and 12 of his Saddle Horſes.

Dreſden, March 21. The Huſſars are extremely troubleſome in Moravia; they have lately taken a Captain in Schonberg's Regiment, who was carrying ſome particular Orders to his Colonel; and afterwards attacked three Companies of the ſaid Regiment drawn out in a Plain, but with what Succeſs is not publiſhed here. They have likewiſe taken two Pruſſian Officers at the Gates of Olmutz; and that Corps of Hungarians which entered Sileſia by Jablunka, is, by Letters of the 17th Inſtant from Breſlau, got to Oppelen, but will ſcarce be able to croſs the Neiſs without meeting with General Marwitz. His Pruſſian Majeſty is expected here, as is likewiſe the Emperor, but the time of their coming ſeems uncertain.

Whitehall, March 20.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint the Right Hon. John Earl of Stair, to be Field-Marſhal of all and ſingular his Majeſty's Forces.

London, March 20, 1741.
